

Ashford Updates

The Ashford Board of Directors are excited to share some Ashford Updates with the congregation. Below are new items and activities that have been completed and are being implemented to support our Ashford Family.

We are excited to see the concrete forms going up to begin pouring basement walls. We will see basement walls and dirt backfill over the next few weeks.